PRESENT PRELIMINARY 2014 BUDGET:
Mayor Nichols reviewed the preliminary 2014 budget and stated that the budget is in line with previous years and there have been no major increases. It was emphasized that the annual budget is built by reviewing each expenditure category to see if funding levels are appropriate. Expenditures are not just automatically carried over to the upcoming budget year. Revenues are determined by statutory limits on property taxes. The building department’s revenues are based upon staff projections and knowledge of upcoming development activities within the Town.

The primary changes for 2014 include a 2% salary increase for selected staff positions, increased budget amounts for legal services, and the purchase of several small tools for the Public Works department.

The Council had a short discussion on the Real Estate Excise Tax (REET) projected revenues. Bill Anderson cautioned that future REET revenues could experience a downturn.
